Women and Wines of The World International Competition™

COMPETITION RULES

Femmes et Vins du Monde - Concours International™ / Women and Wines of The World - International Competition™ is organised in MONACO by the Association Femmes et Vins du Monde - Concours International™ / Women and Wines of The World - International Competition™ - 30 Chemin de la Chartreuse - 83000 Toulon (France).

Article 1 : OBJECTIVE OF THE COMPETITION

This competition is open to all wines from all countries and all viticultural regions with a specified geographical denomination. In what concerns the French wines, they should have made a statement of claim under section D. 644-5 and D. 646-6 of the Rural Code. Wines without geographical indication will not be accepted for the competition.

The competition is intended to highlight the intrinsic qualities of wines from specific geographical areas and to distinguish those wines of outstanding quality and that are exceptionally expressive of their appellation or origin.

This international competition highlights the role of women and their professions in the world of wine and winemaking at an international level.

The prizes awarded in this international competition will :

- Provide all competitors with a representative evaluation of their products.
 - Encourage the launch and sales of quality wines both in terms of the product and its presentation.
 - Promote the quality, diversity and excellence of the prize-winning wines from different appellations or origins.
 - Encourage the expansion of wine and vine culture at an international level.
 - Reinforce the identity and consumer perception of wine internationally.
 - By providing international references, communicate a message to 80% of consumers who are highly receptive to information on wine.
- Femmes et Vins du Monde - Concours International™ / Women and Wines of The World - International Competition™ is organised in accordance with the rules outlined below.

Article 2 : COMPETITORS

Article 7 : COMPETITION RULES

The samples will be presented in an totally anonymous fashion to the judging panels. Upon arrival, the sample is identified by a label on the bottle indicating the name of the competition year, the registration number label (Producer - Sample No. Sample). Samples will not ring Cetie 35-100 TR or crown ring 29 will be reconditioned in a bottle with this type of ring. The implementation is done anonymously by bagging the sample to be presented to the tasters. The bag containing the sample is black baggy and color. The sample is presented without overlap on the bag containing the sample is indicated on a label, the anonymous number (jury, series and item number). The samples are grouped according to their category in series and mini-series in the series. The organizers reserve the right to cancel a category for which an insufficient number of samples have been received: three samples minimum from three different competitors.

Each wine tasted is scored individually and not comparatively. The wines will be blind-tasted and for their intrinsic properties. The marking scheme is a point by point system as used in the official OIV tasting sheet out of 100 points. The total number of judges is decided according to the number of samples presented.

The Technical Commission of the Inter Concours du Monde designates nominally tasters members of each jury through its database of international tasters.

Each table jury consists of five women jurors , 3 foreign judges and two French judges or 3 french judges and 2 foreign judges each representing one of the five panels below that correspond to the highlighted trades vine, wine and wine tourism trades. We will find a juror of the amateur panel discovery. The choice to integrate amateurs is a deliberate because the panel reflects the tastes and expectations of consumers.

Each juror is from a different country and the Technical Committee strives to meet a wide geographical dispersion and panel times. Each judging panel comprises five judges, recognized for their abilities based on each of the following panels:

- Panel1: Oenology or winemaking (presidents of the judging panels)
- Panel2 : Production
- Panel3 : Commercialisation
- Panel4 : Education - Communication - Public relations
- Panel5 : The "discover" consumer

The Women and Wine Association of the World - International Competition™ / Women and Wines of The World - International Competition™ collects a statement on the honor of jury members mentioning their links, direct or indirect, with companies, institutions, professional organizations or associations whose activities, products or interests may relate to the wines entered in the competition.

A juror can not judge his wines. The total number of international female judges is determined by the number of samples presented. A judge may not judge her own wines.

The Femmes et Vins du Monde - Concours International™ / Women and Wines of The World - International Competition™ Association appoints a president and secretary for each judging panel.

The Femmes et Vins du Monde Concours International / Women and Wines of The World International Competition Association will ensure the proper functioning of Femmes et Vins du Monde - Concours International™ / Women and Wines of The World - International Competition™ by organising the preparation of the samples and organisation of the tasting sessions.

The Association will organise the monitoring, exploitation and publication of results using an appropriate evaluation form.

Article 8 : AWARDS

The number of awards attributed during the Femmes et Vins du Monde - Concours International™ / Women and Wines of The World - International Competition™ per wine category will not represent more than a third of the samples presented.

The prizes awarded by the judging panels of the Femmes et Vins du Monde - Concours International™ / Women and Wines of The World - International Competition™ will be at two levels :

- Diamond Nova rating overall > 85 points to 100 points
- Silver Nova score between 80 and 84.9 points out of 100 points overall

No prize will be awarded, if for a given wine category, less than three different samples are received, or if the samples are not presented by three different competitors. Prize-winners will be informed by post or email.

Femmes et Vins du Monde - Concours International™ / Women and Wines of The World - International Competition™ will furnish the prize-winners with a document stating the type of prize awarded, the wine's identity, the batch volume and the name and address of the competitor.

Labels indicating the type of prize awarded will be available from the Femmes et Vins du Monde - Concours International™ / Women and Wines of The World - International Competition™ Association, and may be affixed to bottles of the relevant wines. The number of labels supplied will depend on the production volume stated on the application form.

No other references or representation of the award are permitted on the bottle.

The Femmes et Vins du Monde - Concours International™ / Women and Wines of The World - International Competition™ Association reserves the exclusive right to monitor the use of the awards for commercial purposes. All non-authorized use of the competition logo, awards and prizes are strictly prohibited.

The results of the international competition will be communicated to the general public using all methods of communication, insofar as is possible.

Article 9 : CONTROLS

The Femmes et Vins du Monde - Concours International™ / Women and Wines of The World - International Competition™ Association reserves the right to cancel erroneous or incomplete registration forms and to eliminate any sample that does not conform to these regulations.
